DEAN'S MESSAGE

Nurturing Future Leaders in Today's Classrooms

Amidst the global spectacle of election campaigns, promises, and debates, a quieter yet equally significant drama unfolds in classrooms worldwide: cultivating young leaders. As miniature societies, schools serve as training grounds where students learn to collaborate, compromise, and compete. They hone critical thinking, communication, and problem-solving skills—crucial elements of effective leadership. In many ways, the school environment mirrors the complexities of the political arena. Student councils, class presidents, and group projects provide platforms to practice the arts of governance, negotiation, and consensus-building.

As the political climate in different nations heats up and captures the world's attention, NHJS recognized an opportunity to examine the leadership potential within its school community. The recently concluded Student Council election served as a microcosm of this potential. Our students' passion, enthusiasm, and idealism highlighted the possibility of cultivating a more engaged and informed citizenry. NHJS has played a crucial role in empowering students to participate actively in democratic processes and campaign strategies, fostering a deeper understanding of their civic responsibilities.

Empowering students educates and inspires them. It gives them hope and provides a rich context for learning about leadership styles, ethical decision-making, and the importance of diversity and inclusivity. Students learn to identify the qualities of effective leaders, analyze the impact of different leadership approaches, and develop their own leadership philosophies, empowering them to shape their futures.

By nurturing our students' leadership skills, we are investing in the future of our communities and our world. It's crucial to recognize that the leaders of tomorrow are being shaped in classrooms today. Equipping students with the knowledge, skills, and values necessary for effective leadership can pave the way for a more just, equitable, and sustainable world.

Here at NHJS, we are committed to fostering a generation of young people who are not just by standers but active contributors to society. Our goal is to create an environment where students feel empowered to make a positive impact, both within our school and beyond. By providing opportunities for leadership development, we are equipping our students with the tools they need to become responsible, compassionate, and globally minded citizens. We believe that through education and empowerment, we can cultivate a brighter future for all.

STUDENT COUNCIL INVESTITURE CEREMONY

The 16th Batch of Student Council

To make entertaining and new events isn't a one-man job. I can't change everything and accomplish all my wishes only by my sole effort. More than a hundred voices are present within every inch of this room. It is a hundred against one. And I'm not the only one willing to make a change; the forty-three other students who stand here with me in the ceremony are too, and we make the 16th batch of the Student Council.

During this school year, I am certain this Student Council batch will spend some of their nights crying because of the hassle and loads of stress coming in. We were never lying when we said we'd sacrifice ourselves for the sake of your satisfaction.

To be part of the Student Council is not easy at all. I find it extremely respectable of the current members beside me and also behind me to be able to step up and dedicate themselves to the betterment of the student council and even the school.

Trust me, it's not even easy to speak and stand here in front of a massive crowd. I've heard of the negative comments people ever said about Student Council. When it reaches us, it haunts us and keeps us pondering, but it's not like we get completely discouraged.

Thank you to Sarah, Denzel, and Callista for making last year a remarkable academic year. It's not easy to lead the Student Council, nor is it easy to have the guts to step up and fight for a better chance. But they're people I look up to and aspire to be one day.

You have the student council mentors, Ms.Mansha, Ms.Ong, Ms.Michelle, Ms.Nela, and Coach Indra, who have guiding the student council through so many tough years.

So once again, I'd like to say thank you to our student mentors and our student council mentors for their endless support, and a massive congratulations to this 16th batch of Student Council. Mark my words that the 16th batch will end up as the blueprint of Student Council history. Thank you and have a great day.

SC: SELECTION CAMP 2024

Student Council Selection

On August 9th and 10th 2024, the NationalHigh Jakarta School Student Council embarked on a pivotal selection process to shape the leadership and operational structure for the upcoming academic year 2024-2025. This process was crucial for setting the tone and direction of the Student Council's activities, ensuring it is well equipped to serve and represent the student body effectively.

The first day of the selection process was dedicated to forming the Executive Committee, which comprises the Governing Committee and the Committee Heads. This initial phase was marked by a comprehensive and systematic approach to ensure that the most capable and visionary individuals were chosen for these leadership roles. Candidates for the Executive Committee underwent a series of evaluations that assessed their leadership skills, strategic thinking, and ability to inspire and manage teams. The Governing Committee, in particular, was selected based on its ability to steer the council with a clear and impactful vision.

The Committee Heads were chosen for their expertise in various areas crucial to SC's success, including event planning, outreach, and administration. The deliberations were thorough and collaborative, with input from the outgoing Governing Committee, newly elected President, and mentors. The aim was to ensure a well rounded and dynamic leadership team that could address the diverse needs and aspirations of the student body.

The second day was dedicated to assigning members to four key functional areas vital to SC's operations. These areas are designed to streamline SC activities and enhance its effectiveness across different domains: public relations and marketing, operations, finance and logistics, and human resources. The process began with assessment games and a mock presentation for events, followed by an interview where members were evaluated for their dedication and commitment. The process of assigning these roles was carried out with a keen focus on matching individuals' skills and interests with the needs of each functional area. This approach was intended to maximize the efficiency and effectiveness of the council, ensuring that each member could contribute meaningfully to the council's goals.

Overall, the selection process for the 16th batch of SC set the stage for a productive and dynamic year. With a strong executive team and well defined functional roles, SC is well prepared to undertake its responsibilities and make a positive impact on the school community. The new leadership and team members are eager to begin their roles and are committed to fostering an inclusive and proactive environment throughout the year.

PREFECTORIAL BOARD APPLICATION

Building Leaders: The NationalHigh Prefectorial Board Application and Selection

The NationalHigh Prefectorial Board serves as a distinguished leadership platform for students in years 3 to 7. This initiative is designed for students who are passionate about serving the school community through various leadership activities. Those who demonstrate the qualities necessary for leadership and meet the criteria for membership are honoured with the title of "prefect." These prefects play a crucial role in maintaining discipline, organizing events, and setting a positive example for their peers, making them integral to the school's functioning.

This year, the application process for the Prefectorial Board began on August 5th and concluded on August 9th. During this period, a remarkable total of 108 students from years 3 to 7 expressed their desire to join the board. These students, eager to take on leadership roles, will now undergo a selection process that evaluates their suitability based on a set of defined criteria. This process ensures that only those who truly exemplify leadership qualities and a commitment to service will be selected as prefects.

For students in years 6 and 7, there is an additional opportunity to apply for higher positions within the board, namely the roles of Head Prefect and Deputy Head Prefect. The election for these prestigious positions is scheduled to take place on August 21, 2024. This election is a critical event, as it will determine the students who will lead the Prefectorial Board and represent the student body at a higher level. The results of this election will be eagerly anticipated, with the announcement of the Head Prefect and the two Deputy Head Prefects set to take place during the Monday morning assembly on August 26th.

The Prefectorial Board's journey will culminate with the investiture of the newly elected officers and prefects on September 2nd, 2024. This formal ceremony will officially induct the students into their roles, marking the beginning of their tenure as school leaders. The school community looks forward to witnessing the positive impact these young leaders will make in the coming academic year.
